THE HOMESTEAD.

An Act to lay off the Homestead and Personal Property Exemption.

The General Assembly of North Carolina do enact, as follows:

Section 1. Homestead, when and how exempted.—Whenever the real estate of any resident in this State shall be levied on by virtue of any execution, or any other final process, obtained on any debt, such portion thereof as may be occupied by the owner as an actual homestead, and which he may then elect to regard as such, including the dwelling and buildings thereon, shall be exempt from such levy, except under an execution or other final process issued for the collection of a debt contracted.

1. For the purchase of said homestead.
2. For such work and labor done for the owner of the homestead, as may constitute a laborer's lien.
3. For such labor done on the premises as may constitute a mechanic's lien.

4. For taxes accruing on said homestead.
Sec. 2. Sheriff to summon appraisers.—Before levying upon any homestead thus owned and occupied, the sheriff or other officer charged with such levy shall summon three disinterested persons, qualified to act as jurors, to whom he shall administer the following oath: "I, the undersigned, do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I have no personal, near, or remote, interest in the homestead, or in the debt on which the same is levied, and that I will faithfully perform the duties of appraiser (or assessor), as the case may be, in valuing and laying off the same."

Sec. 3. Duty of appraisers.—The said appraisers shall thereupon proceed to value the homestead, with its dwelling and buildings thereon, and lay off to said owner such portion as he shall elect to exempt, as agent, attorney, or other person, in his behalf, not exceeding in value one thousand dollars, and to fix and describe the same by meter and bounds.

Sec. 4. Appraisers to make return.—They shall then make and sign in the presence of the officer, a return of their proceedings, setting forth the property exempted, which shall be returned by the officer to the clerk of the court for the county in which the homestead is situated, and filed with the judgment roll in the action, at a minute of the same entered on the judgment docket.

Sec. 5. The levy to be made on excess.—The levy may be made upon the excess of the homestead, not laid off according to the provisions of this act, and that the officer shall make substantially the following return upon the execution: "A. B. C. D. and E. F. summoned and qualified as appraisers or assessors (as the case may be), who set off to X the homestead exempt by law. Levy made upon the excess."

Sec. 6. Appraisers to select in case no election is made by the owner, his agent or attorney, or any one acting in his behalf, of the homestead to be laid off as exempt, the appraisers shall make such election for him, including always the dwelling and buildings used therewith.

Sec. 7. That whenever any resident of this State may desire to take the benefit of the homestead and personal property exemption as guaranteed by article X. of the Constitution of this State, such resident (or his agent or attorney) shall apply to any Justice of the Peace of the county in which he resides, and said Justice of the Peace shall appoint as assessors three disinterested persons qualified to act as jurors, residing in said county, who shall, on notice by order of said Justice, meet at the applicant's residence, and after taking the oath prescribed in section two of this act for appraisers, before some official authorized to administer an oath, lay off and allot to the applicant a homestead, with meter and bounds, according to the applicant's direction, not to exceed one thousand dollars in value, and make and sign a descriptive account of the same and return it to the office of the Register of Deeds.

Sec. 8. That said assessors shall set apart the personal property of said applicant, to be by him selected, articles of personal property not exceeding in value the sum of five hundred dollars, and make and sign a descriptive list thereof, and return the same to the Register of Deeds.

Sec. 9. That it shall be the duty of the Register of Deeds to endorse on each of said returns the date when received for registration, and to cause the same to be registered without unnecessary delay. The said register shall receive for registering the said returns the same fees that may be allowed him by law for other similar or equivalent services, which fees shall be paid by said resident applicant, or his agent or attorney, upon the reception of said returns by the Register.

Sec. 10. That if any person entitled to a homestead and personal property exemption, die without having had the same set apart, his widow, if he leave one, then his child and children under the age of twenty-one years, if he leave such, may proceed to have said homestead and personal property exemption laid off to her, him or them, according to provisions of sections seven and eight of this act.

Sec. 11. That when any person entitled to a homestead and personal property exemption, shall file his or her petition before a Justice of the Peace, to have the same laid off and set apart under the provisions of sections seven, eight, nine and ten of this act, the Justice shall make advertisement at the court house door of the county in which the petition is filed, notifying all creditors of said applicant of the time and place when and where the said petition will be heard; and the same shall not be heard, nor any decree made in the cause in less than six months from more than twelve, from the day of making advertisement as above required.

Sec. 12. Appraisal of personal property.—Whenever the personal property of any resident of this State, shall be levied upon by virtue of any execution or other final process issued for the collection of any debt, and the owner, or any agent, or attorney in his behalf, shall demand that the same, or any part thereof, shall be exempted from sale under such execution, the sheriff or other officer, making such levy, shall summon three appraisers as herebefore provided, who, having been first duly sworn, shall appraise and lay off to the judgment debtor such articles of personal property as he, or another in his behalf select; to the value of five hundred dollars, which articles shall be exempt from said levy.

Sec. 13. Return of the same.—Return shall be made of such appraisal and setting off of personal property, in the same manner as is required in section four of this act, upon the laying off of a homestead exemption.

Sec. 14. Who is to be appraisers.—The appraisers to appraise the personal property exemption shall take the same oath as is entitled to the same fees as the appraisers of the homestead, and when both exemptions are claimed by the judgment debtor at the same time.

Sec. 15. Tracts not contiguous, included.—Different tracts or parcels of land not contiguous, may be included in the same homestead, when a homestead of contiguous lands is not of the value of one thousand dollars.

Sec. 16. Costs, how charged.—The cost and expenses of appraising and laying off the homestead or personal property exemption, when the same is made under execution, shall be charged and included in the officer's bill of fees upon such execution or other final process; and when made upon the petition of the owner they shall be paid by such owner and the latter cost shall be a lien on said homestead.

Sec. 17. Liability of officer.—Any officer making a levy who shall refuse or neglect to summon and qualify appraisers as herebefore provided for or who shall fail to make due return of their proceedings, or who shall levy upon the homestead set off by said appraisers or assessors (as the case may be) except as herebefore provided, shall be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor, and he and his sureties shall be liable to answer for said homestead for all costs and damages in a civil action.

Sec. 18. Liability of appraisers.—If any of the appraisers or assessors (as the case may be) who shall wilfully or corruptly conspire with any judgment debtor, or other appraiser, or assessor (as the case may be) to undervalue the homestead or personal property exemption of such debtor, or shall assign false meter and bounds, or make or procure to be made a false and fraudulent return thereof, shall be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor, and shall be answerable to the judgment creditor for all costs and damages in a civil action.

Sec. 19. Any officer or appraiser or assessor who shall wilfully or corruptly conspire with any judgment debtor, or other appraiser, or assessor, to overvalue the homestead or personal property exemption of any debtor or applicant, or shall assign false meter and boundaries, or make, or procure to be made a false and fraudulent return thereof, shall be liable to indictment for a misdemeanor and shall be answerable to the party injured for all costs and damages in a civil action.

Sec. 20. Judgment creditor dissatisfied.—If the judgment creditor for whom the levy is made, of judgment debtor, or person entitled to homestead exemption, shall be dissatisfied with the valuation and allotment of the appraisers or assessors (as the case may be) may, within ten days thereafter, or any other judgment creditor, within six months, and before sale under execution of the excess, notify the clerk of the township of the return of the appraisers or assessors, as the case may be, and thereupon the clerk shall notify the other trustees of the township to meet him, at a time specified, within ten days, on the premises, to reassess and allot said homestead. At the time specified the trustees shall meet on the premises and having first taken the oath prescribed for appraisers they shall view and examine the homestead laid off, and make their report as required in section 24 of this act.

Sec. 21. Who disqualified to act as Appraisers.—If any trustee, or any person summoned as an appraiser, shall be related by blood or marriage, to the debtor, or judgment creditor, or shall be a party in interest, in any action against the former, he shall be disqualified to serve in the valuations of the homestead or personal property exemptions, and another person qualified to act as juror shall be summoned and qualified in his place.

Sec. 22. When the homestead or personal property exemption is made or reallotted on the petition of the person entitled thereon to the township trustees shall make their report as required in section 20 of this act, to the register of deeds, specifying what changes, if any, they have made in the former valuation and allotment, who shall register the same, as required in section 9, and when said homestead and personal property exemption is made, or reallotted, the township trustees shall make and sign a return to the clerk of the Superior Court, who shall file the same and make a minute thereof on the judgment roll and the execution docket.

Sec. 23. Cost of re-assessment how Paid.—If the board of trustees shall confirm the former appraisal, or shall increase the exemption allowed the judgment debtor, the levy shall stand only upon the excess remaining, and the judgment creditors shall pay all costs of the re-allotment. If they reduce the amount allowed the judgment debtor, the cost shall follow the execution and the levy shall cover the excess then remaining.

Sec. 24. How Vacated.—Any appraisal or allotment by the trustees of a township may be set aside, on application of any party in-
